

Whereas, from time to time the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are called upon to recognize the praiseworthy endeavors of outstanding Missouri citizens, a most delightful task which this legislative body embraces with great enthusiasm; and

Whereas, Steve Schoemehl of St. Louis, Missouri, has been chosen Labor Man of the Year, a most impressive accolade to be presented to him on May 15, 2004, at The Cedars in St. Louis; and

Whereas, elected IBEW (International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers) Local One Business Manager in June 2002, Steve Schoemehl was initiated into Local One as a Journeyman Wireman Apprentice in April 1972, since which time he has served Local One as an Apprentice, Journeyman, Steward, Foreman, and General Foreman; and

Whereas, as Business Manager for IBEW Local One, Steve Schoemehl is responsible for the day-to-day operations of Local One, the interests of 6,500 members, and the negotiation of numerous contracts every year; and

Whereas, Steve Schoemehl has enjoyed recognition by being an Executive Board member with the St. Louis Building and Construction Trades Council, serving the IBEW as a member of Code Panel 20, and helping write the National Electrical Code; and

Whereas, Steve Schoemehl has provided support as a member of several IBEW International negotiating committees, including the IBEW National Substance Abuse Policy, and Voice, Data, Video, and Security contracts; and

Whereas, a member of the United Way Board of Directors, Steve Schoemehl serves as Chair of the United Way Union Headquarters Campaign; and

Whereas, Steve Schoemehl has been blessed with the love and encouragement of a wonderful family whose members include his wife, Cindy Schoemehl; two children, Jessica and Nathan; one grandchild, Olivia; and two brothers, Chris Schoemehl and Tim Schoemehl, both of whom are IBEW members:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in congratulating Steve Schoemehl upon his well-deserved selection as Labor Man of the Year and in wishing him continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Steve Schoemehl, as a measure of our esteem for him.
